Issue 11 A Word from the Pastor...

November 2016

Greetings to you as we lift our eyes, hearts, and hands in Thanksgiving to God!!

Our first and foremost reason to worship is to Praise God. Our God is a God of power, mercy, love, and forgiveness. He is our king and yet he calls us his children.

As God's children we need to continually learn and reform. Our book, "Living Lutheran" is helping us. Although the title appears to focus on how to make Lutherans, yet we want to make loyal Christians. Being "Lutheran" means that our God gives each of us a purpose that coordinates with our spiritual gifts. Our responsibility is to pray, read the Bible and talk with others which then directs to specific tasks.

In the chapters of 4 to 6, we see that our Father wants us to work together. God is going to do what God is going to do. The only question is, do we want to be part of it or not?" Along this journey, it is getting to the place where we are looking forward in time and opening ourselves up to connect with agencies, schools, programs that are in our community. As much as we care for all of our members we also need to make a difference reaching out to people in our community. Our focus is to listen, to look, and to talk with other in our neighborhoods. As we continue in seeking out our purpose, we recognize that God's has already provided spiritual gifts need through our members.

Come on our leadership team!!

Please come out to our next meeting.

It will be November 7, 2016

7 to 8:30 pm

We are happy to catch you up.

The work at this time is developing and using a purpose statement. We will continue to brain storm and prepare for our new ways of living out our purpose.

One of our greatest need is to have you join me in my office of conversation and prayer.

I will see you on Thursdays at 10:00 am starting November 3rd.

If you would like me to come to you, there will be a schedule out in the coffee fellowship area to sign up for a time for me to visit with you.

Silver Springs Martin Luther School Pie Day Meeting
 October, 2016

We met at St. Peter Lutheran Church in North Wales and Pastor Wagner read from God's Message, Psalm 46.

Some school history is that it was found in 1859 as an orphanage. It serves as a K-8 Special Education School. The North Penn Auxiliary is the oldest and only remaining auxiliary that supports the school. The school houses 71 residential students and 200 day students attend the school from 40 different school districts. The age of the children served is 8 thru 14.

The children served by the school have had some bad, sad, scary things happen to them in their short lives. When discharging a residential student, they try to place the child with a relative. If family unification is not possible, they look for a foster family. These children are very strong as that has become a coping mechanism for them to survive their bad, sad, scary situations. They are loved at the school and they learn new coping mechanisms to enable them to be healed.

Amanda, the school representative we met with at pie day serves one night a week with an 8 year old boy. He came to the school missing his mom and brother and cried every day. He was angry and sad and acted out. He has now learned new skills and is funny, caring and will soon be released from the residential program. He wrote a good bye letter to his mom (who is no longer around) and has met a potential foster family and has been visiting them. They have already fallen in love with him and they have other children. The school follows the children for 3 years after they are discharged.

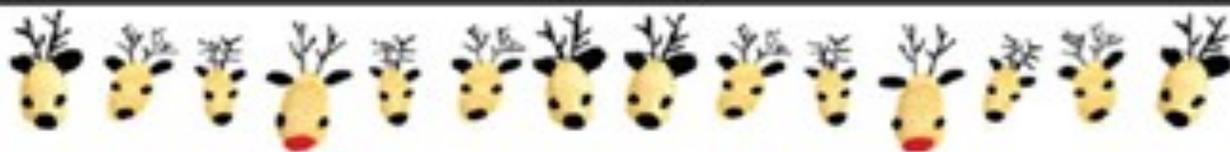

Every child needs someone who cares for them!

The Free Will Offering netted $265.00 and we voted to use it for the clothing fund. At the April meeting I sent the kids undies back to the school that were collected here at St. Johns. They commented that it was a huge hit for the staff and school to receive new underwear for the children. They said they are always in need of socks and underpants! So we will have another Children's Undie Sunday sometime early in 2017!

FAMILY OWNED BUSINESS

We recognize that many of the members of our congregation as well as friends of St. John's own, operate or are affiliated with a family business venture, and this can include baby sitting, dog walking, sitting, mowing of grass, etc.. Please feel free to post your business card, or a little memo with regard to what might be of interest to our congregation. "We are Family...Our Congregation and Me."

Thank You

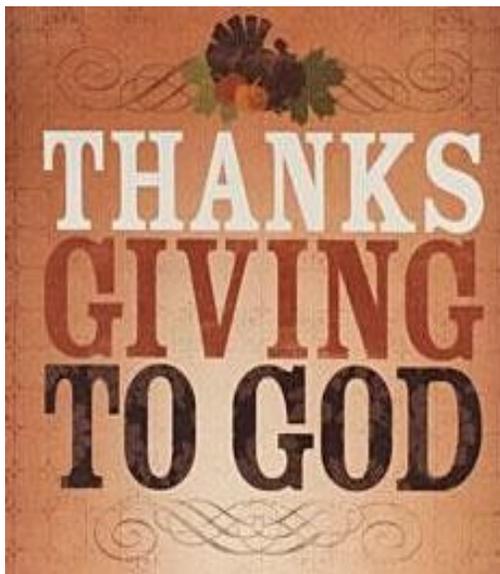

We would like to thank our special guest John Roesinger, with Thrivent Financial who gave a very informative presentation on Estate Strategy, Sat., Oct. 1st.

John provided many welcomed answers to the numerous questions that were asked. Those in attendance most certainly came away more informed as to how to possibly handle matters with regard to inheritance taxes their families might be dealing with, the benefits of a life insurance policy, wills, and what are trusts, etc.

We might do this again next year. If so, consider attending, never too young or aged to learn how to protect yourself and your family , A little knowledge is powerful when it comes to planning for the unexpected. We all came away thinking life and our demise are both complicated. And, most definitely, that is precisely why we need Estate Strategy, i.e. an action plan. Thank you again John.

Lutheran World Relief

Our Hurricane Matthew response in Haiti is moving quickly and we wanted to give you an update.

The reality on the ground is that the damage from the storm is widespread. More than 1.4 million people across Haiti are in desperate need of help, including more than 175,000 people living in temporary shelters.

Will you reach out to them with a gift today?

Here's what we are working on right now.

A shipment of emergency water filters is making its way to Haiti so that families in the most affected areas will have safe drinking water

We are also working to distribute temporary shelter kits, hygiene kits and food kits. Lutheran World Federation, LWR's long-time partner has distributed Personal Care and Baby Care Kits to people in Les Caye and Aquin, which are among the areas hardest hit.

Your support today will help us work quickly and efficiently to deliver life-sustaining help to families in dire need.

Please give as generously as you can to help the people of Haiti recover from this devastating storm. Thank you for your continued prayers and support. God bless you!

September 24th Bon Fire – Paul and Mary Good

Our special guests Paul and Mary Good were a delight for our Sept. 24th Bon Fire. Their spiritual songs came from within their hearts. Some were composed by them with family participating via tape in the background. They asked for a tour of our church and we were delighted as it had just been completed for Harvest Home Sunday. It was not only the 'Goods' who were amazed and genuinely expressed, "It is just beautiful," but our other guests as well!

Our new friends Darrell Corral and Susan Tough from Jordan Lutheran Church in Orefield, Pa., who had seen our ad in the Penny Power, also joined us again. Thank you Phyliss Kogel for volunteering as guide for those wishing to tour St. John's. J

It is always interesting, camp fire goodies are not only appreciated by children, camp fire goodies are also loved by adults as well!

Thank you John Mood and Brenda Landt for your songs and music. Your time and energy is most appreciated for another great evening - "Keeping the Spirit Alive under the Stars."

October 22nd Bon Fire – Yvonne Hartman

Mother Nature is sometimes unpredictable where October is concerned. And so this month our unseasonably warm weather for mid-week ended up with rain and sometimes high winds for Saturday. No problem, our October Bon Fire event was held in doors with the pit made ready outside as an indicator that the event was still on!

The weather did not deter our special guest Yvonne Hartman, who is known as a contemporary Christian artist, a worshipper with a guitar. Yvonne's songs were inspiration/situational, they are derived from experiences, everyday struggles, and providing encouragement for believers. She loves sharing her gift of music which God has given her. And it showed during her presentations which were exceptional. She started playing and fell in love with the guitar and mastered it. Her music can be found on radio as well as music videos. She and her husband Paul, a dairy farmer, live on a farm in Oley, Pa., where Yvonne is also a member of her church's worship team.

Thank you John Mood for bringing Yvonne Hartman and her talent for sharing life's journey through her music for our October Bon Fire.

We are also much appreciative of John Mood and Brenda Landt for also sharing their gift for ministry through music and song prior to Yvonne's performance.

John Mood and Brenda Landt

The aforementioned bon fire was the last of our bon fires for this season - "Keeping the Spirit Alive under the Stars." On behalf of John Mood and St. John's, thank you everyone for your attendance during our 2016 Bon Fires. John already has some ideas for the 2017 Bon Fire season.

YOU ARE INVITED TO COME OUT AND JOIN US FOR OUR 2017 BON FIRES!

Other Peoples' Shoes

One trait that stunts many people's growth in love is the failure to look at the other person's point of view as well as their own. An anonymous author summed it up this way:

When the other fellow acts that way, he's ugly ... When you do it, it's nerves.

When he's set in his ways, he's obstinate ... When you are, it's just firmness.

When he doesn't like your friends, he's prejudiced ... When you don't like his, you are simply showing good judgment of human nature.

When he tries to be accommodating, he's polishing the apple ... When you do it, you're using tact.

When he takes time to do things, he is dead slow ... When you take ages, you are deliberate.

When he picks flaws, he's cranky ... When you do, you're discriminating.

Develop the habit of putting yourself in the other person's "shoes" and you will do much to unlock the creative powers entrusted to you by God. "All that you wish men to do to you, even so do you also to them." (Matthew 7:12). ☩

God comes first, not last. Otherwise, we give him only the leftovers after we have made sure that we have provided for our own comforts.

The principle of sacrificial giving is that our giving to God comes off the top of all that he has given us. Otherwise, some would say it is not a true offering, just a tip left at the table. Pray to be enabled to give generously.
